A FINE DAUGHTER

Mr. William Willis, the popular clerk at M. F. Williams Drug Store, is wearing the happy smile this morning. The stork visited Mrs. Willis yesterday morning and left a fine daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Schorn of Quincy, Ky., are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Boughion of Lexington street.

FINE ENTERTAINMENT

Given by Laurant and Co. at the Mayville High School Last Evening—
Large Audience Present.

One of the strongest numbers of the 1916-17 lyceum season was seen last night on the platform of the High School auditorium last night when, Laurant and Co., famous magicians gave an entertainment lasting two hours. The entire program of magic and music was not filled with one dull moment and all present said that it was one of the best ever seen on the local stage.

Mr. Laurant carries a company of five, an assistant, a pianist, two saxophonists and a cornetist. The cornetist was also very skilled in reading.

The program opened with a musical selection by the company. Mr. Laurant then appeared and began his evening's work. First he produced a number of flowers which he placed all over the stage. He performed a great many other feats of magic during the first act, all of which were very entertaining. The final bit of magic performed during his first act was entitled "Pandora's Box." He showed a large box, completely empty, to the audience. He then closed the same and after turning it around several times he opened it. There emerged one of the ladies of the troupe. This feat brought some little applause from the audience.

The second act of the entertainment was what Mr. Laurant called "The Wizard's Supper." Mysteriously he produced various articles of food and then changed them into something else. This part of his program was extremely interesting and afforded a great deal of amusement for the audience.

During the intermission between the second and third acts, Miss Helen Bonner, the most famous woman cornetist in the United States and also a very talented reader and pianist, gave several pianologues, all of which were very entertaining. Miss Bonner's work was brilliant and she could have given an entire program with ease and grace.

During his third act, Mr. Laurant performed even more mystifying magic acts. A large dial was placed in full view of the audience and a hand placed on it. Mr. Laurant then allowed members of the audience to select cards from a pack. As he called the numbers of the spots on the cards and the hand would point to the number on the dial. For his closing trick he produced a number of silk handkerchiefs and produced from their midst a beautiful American flag. Then with the strains of the "Star Spangled Banner" he closed his entertainment.

The lyceum course this year has been so far one of the best ever had in this city and each number seems to be better than the last. Persons that are missing the course this year are missing some of the best musicians and entertainers ever in this city. The next number will be the celebrated Chinese statesman and lecturer, Ng Poon Chew.

CUTS THROAT

Lee Price Carries His Wife Yesterday Afternoon and as a Result is in the Clutches of the Law

Mrs. Lee Price, colored, appeared before Judge Whitaker yesterday afternoon and swore out a warrant for her husband for cutting and wounding with intent to kill and also one for his mother for being accessory before the fact.

The woman claims that during the past several months their married life has not been a path of roses and that several times he has beat and ill-treated her. Several weeks ago he made an attempt to kill her and after swearing out a warrant for the same offense she refused to appear against him.

On yesterday Price went to the home of another colored woman in the East End and his wife followed him. Upon her arrival she found that Price's mother was in the house. Mrs. Price, Sr., handed her son an open knife and told him to kill her. He made a stab at her and cut a small gash in her throat. The wound was not very deep and will cause no serious trouble.

Mrs. Price was apprehended by the Police soon after the warrant was sworn out but her son was not arrested until late in the evening. The trial will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock in Police Court.

The common school diploma examination will be held in my office Friday and Saturday beginning at 9 o'clock. JESSIE O. YANCEY, Supt.

Mr. Charles Triebel, manager of the Pastime Theater, was a business visitor in town yesterday.

GEM SOLD

The Gem Theater has been sold to Mrs. Ernie White at a private sale and Trustee H. L. Walsh was notified by Referee in Bankruptcy Martin Durrett of Covington to turn the property over to her. The final disposition of the Gem is not known but probably will not be reopened as a moving picture theater.

MRS. DESMOND'S FUNERAL

The funeral of Mrs. D. L. Desmond was held from the St. Patrick's Church this morning at 9 o'clock. Burial was made in the Washington Catholic Cemetery. A large number of the friends and acquaintances of Mrs. Desmond attended the funeral.

1917 TOBACCO CROPS

Being Sold Before the Ground is Prepared—Several Farmers Agree to Sell All They Can Raise This Year For 15 Cents Per Pound.

Among the many tobacco growers at the Grower Warehouse yesterday was one who was delivering a crop that he had sold last summer to a buyer at 15 cents per pound and he claimed he had made good money on the deal, and in order to convince those who seemed to doubt that he was honest in saying that he had made money and was not sorry for his transaction, notwithstanding the tobacco brought considerably more than 15 cents over the Growers floors, he said he had already sold all he could raise this year at the same figures. He also said that he intended to hire additional help and would put in every available inch of ground he had and grow all the tobacco possible.

And he is not the only one who had done this. Farmer Clarence Jolly of Fairview, Fleming county, has sold all he can raise this year at 15 cents to Leander Millikin of Burika, Robertson county.

It used to be the custom to sell the tobacco after it was tobacco, but these times, when everything saleable is being grabbed up as fast as grabbers can grab, it is the custom to give them their grab before the article to be grabbed is even planted.

Next year we suppose the farmer will be able to get a purchaser for what he says he is going to raise in the barley line.

DINNER PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. George Ballou entertained very beautifully with a five course six o'clock dinner Saturday evening at their home on West Fourth street. The following persons participated, Misses Mary Alter Harbour, Minerva Stockton, Messrs. Lloyd Gray of South Boston, Virginia, Tom Gooding of Lexington and Richard Thomas.

REMOVED TO TENNESSEE

Rev. R. L. Benn, for a number of years pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church of this city, has removed to Mount Pleasant, Tenn., where he is the pastor of a large church. Mr. Benn went from here to Newport, Ark., where he stayed only a few months.

At Carr's Fourth Street yard—Black Hetsy and Yellow Jacket Block Coal.

FAMILY AVOIDS SERIOUS SICKNESS

By Being Constantly Supplied With Theodor's Black-Draught.

McDuff, Va.—"I suffered for several years," says Mrs. J. B. Whitaker, of this place, "with sick headache, and stomach trouble."

Ten years ago a friend told me to try Theodor's Black-Draught, which I did, and I found it to be the best family medicine for young and old.

I keep Black-Draught on hand all the time now, and when my children feel a little bad, they ask me for a dose, and it does them more good than any medicine they ever tried.

We never have a long spell of sickness in our family, since we commenced using Black-Draught.

Theodor's Black-Draught is purely vegetable, and has been found to regulate weak stomachs, aid digestion, relieve indigestion, colic, wind, nausea, headache, sick stomach, and similar symptoms.

It has been in constant use for more than 70 years, and has been used by more than a million people.

TO BUILD SHIPS AT COST PRICE

Bethlehem Steel Will Make Offer to Uncle Sam.

BIDS ON 16 INCH NAVY SHELLS

No Chance For Profit In Them Under Present Tests, Grace Says—Possible Explanation of the Prices Made by an English Firm Which Bids Under All American Manufacturers.

Speaking recently before the Terrapin Club of Philadelphia, Eugene G. Grace, President of the Bethlehem Steel Company, said in part:

In a peculiar sense Bethlehem Steel serves the American people. For example, though we have been able to obtain in Europe almost any price, we have adhered, in our charges to the United States Government, to the basis of prices established before the war began.

We agreed—if the Government would abandon its plans for a Federal plant—to make armor for our Navy at any price the Government itself might consider fair.

Our ordinance plants are at the disposal of the nation at a fair operating cost, plus a small margin, thus saving the Government investment and depreciation.

One of the special needs of the new navy is sixteen-inch guns—guns sixty feet long and capable of hurling a 2000 pound shell with such power and accuracy as to hit a 50 foot square target fifteen miles away.

We have undertaken voluntarily to construct, at a cost of $4,500,000, a plant fitted to build sixteen-inch guns.

Under no conceivable circumstances can orders which we may receive for this plant pay even a fair return on the investment.

Considerable comment has been made upon the fact that a British manufacturer recently bid less than American manufacturers for sixteen and fourteen-inch shells for the navy.

I am unable to state the basis upon which the English bid was made. It should be remembered, however, that this bid was for a specific shell, samples of which are being sent over for test—a test not yet made.

Two years ago we took an order for 2400 fourteen-inch armor-piercing shells at a contract price of $768,000, to be delivered within a certain time or we had to pay a large penalty.

The only specifications for making these shells are that they shall be of a certain size and must pierce armor-plate at a certain velocity on impact. It is impossible to foretell the exact conditions of the tests.

We had made large quantities of shells in the past which had been accepted. But in placing this particular order the Department altered the angle at which the tested shells must pierce armor-plate. The result, however, has been absolute inability on our part to produce in any quantity, shells which will meet these novel tests. In fact, we know of no process of projectile-making through which it is possible to produce in quantities shells which will conform to the requirements.

The result is that up to now on that contract of $768,000, we have put into actual operating expense $447,881, and have been penalized for non-delivery $406,744, a total of $854,625, with no receipts whatever.

Such was the experience in the light of which we were called upon recently to bid for sixteen-inch shells.

We bid on these shells at approximately the same rate per pound as that of a fourteen-inch shell contract of one year ago upon which the Government awarded contracts.

We have not the slightest idea what profit there will be in the making of these shells. We do not know that there will be any. There is no certainty that it would be possible for us to deliver a shell to meet the test.

For officers in the Navy to assume that any bid made under such conditions is "exorbitant" is utterly unfair.

We bid on the new battle-cruisers under examination of our books, found would yield a profit of less than ten percent. We agreed to assume risks for increased costs of materials and labor, that made it possible that these contracts might yield no profit what ever.

The costs run beyond the amount appropriated by Congress on the basis of the cost estimates made a year ago. And because shipbuilders could not alter the inexorable cost facts and reduce bids to early estimates of the Navy Department, the prices are called "exorbitant."

It would be a real advantage to be relieved of this naval construction. The profit from it cannot possibly amount to much, and the responsibility is enormous.

We have determined to make this offer to the American Government. "If you will build two of the battle-cruisers in Government navy yards, we will build the other two at the ascertained cost of building the ships in the Government yards, without additional expense or commissions of any kind. We will also contract to have our ships ready for service ahead of the Government ships."

CONSUMPTION OF CANDY, CAKES AND TARTS ON TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAYS IS FORBIDDEN IN FRANCE

Paris, January 21.—Sugar cards are to be instituted in France. It is officially stated that the objects of the measure are to diminish the sea transport, reduce purchases abroad and avoid the export of gold. The Government also has decided that after February 1 all confectionery establishments must close Tuesday and Wednesday of each week, except holy days. During the two days the consumption is strictly forbidden of cakes, tarts and candies in confectionery and bread shops, hotels, cafes and groceries.

RAIDER IS SUNK

In Atlantic, According to Report Sent From South America — British Cruiser Sinks Vessel, 'Tis Said — Old Glory Is Flown From Mast of Warships.

Pernambuco, January 21.—A Prussian commerce raider, believed to be the Vineta, which has wrought havoc with allied shipping in the last few weeks in the South Atlantic, particularly off the Brazilian coast, has been sunk by the British cruiser Glasgow, according to a generally accepted report received here tonight.

Sinking of the Vineta, if confirmed, will place the cruiser Glasgow, commanded by Captain John Luce, of the Royal Navy, in the first rank of British vessels that have written naval history anew since the start of the present war.

Three times since she was sent to the Atlantic the name of Glasgow has been prominent in fights that have resulted in cutting off Prussian efforts to destroy the blockade by which the Central Powers have been deprived of the means of obtaining supplies outside their own domains.

In the memorable fight off Coronet, on the Chilean coast, on November 1, 1915, when Rear Admiral Sir Christopher Craddock was lost with his flagship, the Good Hope, and the British Cruiser Monmouth, the Glasgow, with Captain Luce commanding her, was in the thick of the fight.

From that memorable fight, in which the Prussians were victorious, the Glasgow was the only British war vessel to escape. A different story of the fight might easily have been told had the battle lasted a brief time longer, for British reinforcements were on their way to the scene of the battle and arrived just as the two British ships went down with their gallant commanders.

Again, about a month later, the Glasgow was attached to the squadron commanded by Vice Admiral Sir Frederick Sturges, which met the Prussian squadron under Admiral Von Spee. Admiral Von Spee was the commander of the squadron which won the Coronet fight and he and his vessels had been relentlessly pursued by the British squadron, seeking to avenge the loss of the Good Hope and the Monmouth.

The Glasgow underwent rapid repairs off Rio Janeiro before she joined Vice Admiral Sturges' squadron. Vice Admiral Sturges' force overtook the Prussian squadron early in December. The fight that followed was one of the most brilliant in the history of the British Navy. This time the British strength more nearly approached that of the Germans.

In a brief time, so efficient was the fire of the British seamen, that three of the five Prussian vessels engaged in the fight had been sent to the bottom. They were the Scharnhorst, the Gneisenau and the Leipzig.

Despite a running fight, in which a ceaseless fire was maintained, the cruisers Dresden and Nürnberg escaped.

The Dresden had achieved a signal reputation as a commerce raider, but her freedom after the Falkland Islands battle was not long lived. She was overhauled by the Glasgow, with the Kent and the auxiliary cruiser Orama, 400 miles off the Chilean coast. The Dresden was sunk, thus ending the search for the commerce raider that had been continuous from December to March by the vessels of the allied patrol of the Atlantic.

In the fight against the Prussians on that occasion it was declared that several naval records had been established, for not a British ship was hit. The battle lasted only about five minutes and all members of the Dresden's crew were saved.

Don't Wait

Take Advantage of a Maysville Citizen's Experience.

When the back begins to ache, Don't wait until backache becomes chronic.

"My kidney troubles develop; I profit by a Maysville woman's experience."

Mrs. R. W. Lauderback, W. Second St., Maysville, says: "Two years ago I was suffering with kidney trouble and had been for a long time. I was nervous and dizzy and had severe headaches. My kidneys were too frequent in action and annoyed me greatly. I had a dull ache across the small of my back and my back was so lame at times that I could hardly bend one way or the other. Some one advised me to use Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a box at Wood & Son's Drug Store. They helped me at once and continued use entirely cured me of the trouble."

Mrs. Lauderback is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that cured Mrs. Lauderback—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. ## BANQUET POSTPONED

The Chamber of Commerce Dinner Will Not Be Held Until Second Week in February—To Be Served at the Whitehall Hotel.

On account of the inability of the program committee of the Chamber of Commerce to make proper connections with Mr. Mr. Garrett H. Wall Assistant to the President of the C. & O. Railway Company, and Mr. W. B. Calkins Executive Secretary of the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce and several other gentlemen in regard to their being able to be present on Wednesday night for the banquet, the Committee has postponed the banquet until the second week in February, at which time it is ascertained by these gentlemen that they will be able to be present.

While it is true that the Committee could have arranged with other speakers who no doubt would have pleased the banqueters to a very great extent, it was felt that there was an especial interest among the populace of Maysville in reference to the new passenger station, which they would like to have definite details by a man so close to the helm of the C. & O. Railway Company. It is also known by the Committee that Mr. Calkins of Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce is a great favorite with the good many of the members of this organization, who would be more than pleased to hear him. In the mean time the Committee expects to make proper arrangements with at least one other speaker of note and to also arrange some minor details which they will have more time to do, that will add to the general pleasure of the evening.

ALMOST HERE!

The time for the Forest Avenue Revival is almost here. Are you one and all prepared for this coming event? Rev. W. H. Morris, pastor of the Second M. E. Church, Ashland, will be here on Thursday night to assist in the efforts.

Brother Morris is a very efficient Pastor Evangelist, with an old time gospel message for every service, and to hear him once will intensify a desire to hear him again.

Every one should be looking forward to this meeting with great faith and hope.

The membership and pastor are doing all they can to make the meeting a success, clearing the path as far as possible of every obstacle that might be in any one's way.

They are praying for an old time revival in which sinners may be converted to Christ, backsliders reclaimed and believers sanctified.

A new piano has been installed for our use during the meeting and for future use. The choir is preparing to do some excellent singing. A special selection will be given at practically every service.

Every one is invited. Prepare to attend every service from the first to the last.

HOW ABOUT IT?

A Country Fair For Mason County Would Be of Great Benefit—Company Should Be Formed to Back Same.

The sentiment for a country fair to be held in Maysville during each fall is rapidly growing among the business men of the city and possibly there will be some action taken toward that end within the next several weeks. The benefits from such a fair are numerous and at once apparent.

Within a radius of 25 miles of Maysville there is annually held five fairs, Germantown, Ripley, Georgetown, Vanceburg and Ewing. Each one of these fairs draws several hundred people from Maysville, Ripley and the Old Reliable at Germantown getting the largest attendance from this city. All of these fairs are held in the city and possibly there will be some action taken toward that end within the next several weeks. The benefits from such a fair are numerous and at once apparent.

All of these fairs are held in the city and possibly there will be some action taken toward that end within the next several weeks. The benefits from such a fair are numerous and at once apparent.

The suggestion has been made that a four day fair be held, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. In this way opportunity would be given for exhibitors to come into the city on Monday and to leave on Saturday. In case the last two days of the fair should be rainy, then the last day of the week is open if the fair managers wish to continue the same.

Some people object to a fair, saying that those taking prizes are generally from out of the county and take more money away than they bring into a place. This is a fallacy. Suppose there were two prizes offered for the best trotters exhibited. There would be from five to ten entries and each owner would be compelled to stay in the city for the entire four days. During this time he would stop at a hotel or boarding house, eat his meals at a restaurant, be compelled to buy his feed for his horse, and other incidental expenses. Certainly there would be no loss on a proposition of this kind.

In addition to the exhibitors there would be a great number of visitors to the city, who during the day would patronize the stores, confectioneries, and other businesses. A fair crowd is always willing to spend money and will spend it willingly.

An organization should be effected at once and this body should not only be composed of Maysville men but of men from all over the county. Mason county products are the finest in the world and deserve a recognition. If farmers would take prizes for their products at home, there would be an incentive to show them in the State Fair at Louisville, thus advertising that Mason county is one of the leaders in tobacco and corn growing.

The columns of the Ledger are open to those wishing to express themselves on the matter of a fair.

WITH THE SICK

Mr. Lee Diager continues to improve rapidly.

Miss Georgia Chambers, who has been seriously ill with a very severe case of pneumonia, is improving slowly.

Mr. Luther Gilbert, who was injured several days ago when a small piece of steel flew into his eye, has had that organ removed. Dr. Taubee performed the operation. The eye was the left one. He is recovering nicely from the effects of the operation.

MID-YEAR EXAMINATIONS

The mid-year examinations of the Public Schools will be held this week beginning on Wednesday. The examinations this year will be held for determining whether or not a number of students will be allowed to pass into the next grade. The new system of promotion will go into effect on next Monday, which will be the beginning of the second semester.

"SEPTEMBER MORN"

Advertisements of "September Morn" are being shown on the billboards in various parts of the city. This show will be here on next Tuesday night and will doubtless draw a large crowd as there has not been a show of this sort in Maysville for some several months. The show is a musical comedy and has attracted large crowds at every point.

A string of twelve wagons of tobacco was seen last night passing on Second street on their way to the warehouses. Such sights as these are rarely ever seen now as there are so many houses that the string is always broken up very soon.

INSURANCE COMPANIES CANCELLING POLICIES

Many of the fire insurance companies are cancelling the policies of the residents of Sardis on account of the many mysterious fires that have occurred in that town in the past several weeks. The companies are not willing to assume the risk when there is a fireburg around. The State Fire Marshal should send some one to this town to make an investigation and to catch the criminal if possible.

NO DANGER OF FLOOD

The gauge marks 33.6 at the foot of Market street this morning and the river is rising at the rate of one and one-half inches an hour. The river at this point will probably not go much over 45 feet if it reaches that height. The dangers of a flood are about nil, unless of course something unexpected happens. The cold wave came at a most opportune time.

Dr. J. W. Boyd of Cynthia, Ky., brother of Mr. A. J. Boyd of this city, and whose illness was mentioned in the Ledger several days ago, is improving. He was suffering from blood-poisoning of the throat.
